Mrs. Louise M. Dunn, actively associated with The Cleveland Museum of Art for twenty-five years, died Monday in San Diego, California. She was Associate Curator of Education, at the time of her retirement in 1944.

Mrs. Dunn was graduated from Wooster College and The Cleveland School of Art. She studied abroad and returned to Cleveland and began preventive work in juvenile delinquency at the Cleveland Girls Bureau and group social work at Alta House. She then established children's clubs for the Cleveland Public Library in its branches throughout the city.

At the Museum Mrs. Dunn was the principal motivation for the establishment of the Museum's free classes, classes for adults and members' children and for the Museum's auditorium programs. An excellent painter she often won MAY SHOW honors.

William M. Milliken, Director Emeritus, said of Mrs. Dunn: "She was one of those rare spirits who had the ability to breathe creative life into whatever she touched."

After her retirement Mrs. Dunn moved to San Diego, California. Services were held today (Thursday) at the Benbough Mortuary, 711 Date Street, in that city.
